Gun Dealer Curbed

Post 9/5/75

MARIETTA, Ga.—Mitchell L. Wer-Bell III of Marietta has agreed to quit the arms trade, which in the past has frequently involved him in international intrigue.

In a deal worked out Wednesday betiple legal complications are involved in her testimony—including her marital right not to testify against her husband.

The government, which earlier identified Jack Scott as the key target of the investigation, dismissed him as a further witness. The Scotts earlier had vowed to remain silent even if immunity was granted.
